Committee Reports

Program & Policy Committee (October 21, 2019)

- Sue Paluga reviewed the information from the meeting:
 - Mahoning County Domestic Court/Mahoning County TASC – Judge Smith, Magistrate Don Hefner, Louis Arroyo of Domestic Court and Alki Santamas of TASC joined the committee to discuss the proposed project for TASC to provide assessment and case management services for the court. Committee members recommend the Board approve the pilot program.
 - Jody Klase of Valley Counseling reported on the funds that were allocated to Valley Counseling to provide case management services for Medicare

- clients. Medicare does not cover case management. This funding has allowed them to better serve their clients' needs, i.e. housing, utilities, etc.
- o Ken Bielecki of Jewish Family Services reported to the committee that the funds provided to them for Senior Outreach services has allowed Shay Kahani-Erez, MSW to provide home visits for those 65+ as well as therapeutic groups such as grief, happiness, games (socialization), etc. Out of town family members can reach out to her for wellness checks on elderly relatives. These funds have allowed them to provide these services to Mahoning County residents regardless of faith. Jewish Family Services is currently a Medicare provider with 4 LISW's on staff, they are working on becoming a Medicaid provider as well. They accept referrals of persons of all faiths.

12- 2020: Motion: Sue Paluga – to approve the pilot program with Mahoning County Domestic Court and Mahoning County TASC. Seconded: Scott Fowler...motion carried.

Attorney Tom Vasvari, swore in re-appointed member, by conducting the Oath of Office for Anna Howells.

Board Remarks

- Discussion of the requirements for pink slipping a mental health client from a treatment facility. Responsibilities of the facility and law enforcement need to be better delineated.
- 2nd annual HELMS Foundation fund raiser to be held on Saturday, November 2nd at the B&O Station.
- Question and discussion regarding the status of the Neil Kennedy Recovery Clinic regional detox. Staff reported that they are receiving occasional bed count updates from NKRC, generally 13 to 14 beds are occupied. It was decided that NKRC Staff would be invited to the November Ways and Means Committee meeting to provide an update.

Provider Remarks

- Brett Green with Hope Counseling & Addiction Services, thanked the Board for the work they do in the community.
- Angela with Coalition for a Drug Free Mahoning County, announced the next Opioid & Other Drug Hub meeting will be November 19th at 3 p.m. at the Boardman Administration Building. All Board members are welcome to attend.
- Darryl, YUMADAOP stated they are currently in Kirkmere Elementary school and have a meeting with the Youngstown City Schools CEO scheduled. YUMADAOP is still active in many of the charter schools.
- Jeff with Flying HIGH announced last week they graduated 17 people (7 welders, 5 CDCA's and 5 STNA's) from their program. In conjunction with OhioMHAS they were also able to train 25 Peer Recovery Supporters last week.
- Joe Shorokey, Alta, announced they are installing their new electronic health records and last week had their auditors in. For the Alta HeadStart program, they have in the past years received a grant from the Swanson foundation to fund fresh fruit and vegetables for the children. Working with Swanson they are developing a sponsorship program to diversify the funding for the program.
- Tammy Weaver, Coleman Professional Services, announced they will be opening the 18 bed facility on the ground floor of the Belmont Avenue facility as a Class 2 Residential facility. Target date is January 2020 to open. They will be accepting clients with RSS or other funding.

- Darla, Meridian HealthCare, distributed information on their withdrawal management program. She also announced that Mercy Health Youngstown will be holding an open house at their new Centering Pregnancy location at 550 West Chalmers on Friday, November 1, 2019 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.
- Jeff Magada also reported that they had received their Fiscal Year audit. The audit had no findings or recommendations. He thanked the Board for their support.

The meeting adjourned at 5:37 p.m.
